

SAVE THE DATE • May 21, 2010

HEALTH REFORM AND YOU: THE BASICS THAT TEXANS NEED TO KNOW

WHEN: Friday, May 21, 2010

WHERE: Tarrant County Public Health
1101 S. Main Street, Fort Worth

8:30 a.m. – Registration
9 -10:30 a.m. – Health Care Reform and You
11- Noon – Want to Know More?

Attend the optional 11 a.m. – noon session if you want more details on the nuts and bolts of Medicaid, health insurance regulation reforms, and the impacts on business and state government.

RSVP by May 19, 2010

dmstoller@tarrantcounty.com

We are on the verge of a monumental advance in access to good, affordable care for Americans, and an opportunity to make this degree of progress may not come around again for another generation.

With more than one in four Texans currently lacking health care insurance and runaway premiums adding daily to that 6.1 million count, relief cannot come too soon for our overburdened health care system.

ATTEND THE FORUM.

JOIN THE DISCUSSION.

LEARN MORE.

Presented by:

Tarrant County Public Health
United Way of Tarrant County
Center for Public Policy Priorities
Area Agency on Aging of Tarrant County
Aging & Disabilities Resource Center of Tarrant County

Tarrant County Public Health

RSVP: Dixie Stoller: 817-321-5300, dmstoller@tarrantcounty.com